- Raiderade is now Advisory with an added emphasis on student connection and family engagement
- Teachers are finding innovative ways for students to learn remotely during synchronous lessons in the morning
- Afternoon Asynchronous time is a great way to connect with teachers in smaller groups and get questions answered
- There are 6 days left of the current block of classes and we are encouraging students to finish strong
- Skyward and email are the best tools we have for communicating learning

Attendance & Student Engagement

- Daily attendance and participation in class are important.
- Attendance is recorded in every class, every day.
- Call the main office to excuse an absence within 48 hours.
- Advisory teachers are primary contacts for families.

Athletics:

- The WIAA has pushed all sport seasons to 2021...
- Season #2 will be traditional Winter sports in Jan/Feb
- Season #3 will be traditional Fall sports in March/April
- Season #4 will be traditional Spring sports in May/June

- October/November is the WIAA workout window. Currently, Bellingham Schools are at "Level 1"
 - 100% remote/online coaching and individual training/workouts, shared and or posted only. Workouts and engagement is strictly optional
 - "Level 2" (if/when approved) would allow small groups of athlete to work in-person with coaches. More info to come on this in coming weeks
 - Also, this week a virtual sports fair was emailed out to all BHS students. Please encourage your student to look for this. Students will be able to connect with teams and coaches of interest.

ASB Clubs

- Many clubs are active and meeting online.
- Virtual Club Fair will be emailed to students next week!
 - Connect with clubs of interest.

Supply Pick Up #2 – Wed. 10/14/20

- For class periods 5-8
- Time: 10 to 4 – By alpha group – 90 chunks
- Park in main lot – Walk up
- One person per household walk to front courtyard
- Please wear mask and be socially distant
